LEAGUE RULES AND REGULATIONS

Gateway Ice Centre has the right to remove any league, Team or player who does not obey by the rules of the Gateway Ice Centre.

Any Team or player ejected from the Gateway Ice Centre will not receive a refund.

All Players or Team are responsible for any damage to the Gateway Ice Centre.

ELIGIBILITY and PLAYER INSURANCE PROCESS:

Players will be eligible to play and will be covered by insurance only when said player has been approved by League Management

Any player who does not obey this process will not have player insurance and will be playing at their own risk.

Any Team who uses a player that is not on their on-line roster, and this player receives a major or match penalty in that game, will result in the Team being suspend for one game or more. The suspension will depend on the penalty.

All Teams must get approval from the League Manager to use a player who is not on their on-line roster.

PLAYOFF ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to play in the playoffs, a player must play in a minimum of 6 REGULAR SEASON GAMES.

Injured players will have their missed games counted towards the minimum number of games required to play to be eligible for playoffs (provided they have been placed on the game sheet and marked down as INJURED or they have informed the League Manager.

If there is any question of eligibility for the playoffs please talk to your League Manager.

FINAL TEAM ROSTERS:

All team rosters must be finalised by the 6th game. If the player is injured and cannot play notify the League Manager.

No further players will be allowed to register after the 6th game unless approved by the League Manager.

Please contact your League Manager for any changes to your Team roster.

DEFAULTED GAMES:

Games will be defaulted when:

- (a) A player plays that is not eligible to play
- (b) A player plays that has not registered
- (c) A player plays while under suspension
- (d) A team does not have enough players to play a game.

(A minimum of 5 eligible skaters and a goalie is required.) If a goalie is required a grace time of 10 minutes will be allowed by the timekeeper using the game clock. The team with enough players shall be deemed the winner. (1 -0 win) in Regular Season and (5-0) in the playoffs.

Forfeit:

A Team that forfeits a game will also receive a one game suspension. The game they are suspended for will be given to the Team they forfeit against.

GOALIES:

Each team will supply their own goalie. It is up to each team to arrange for a backup goalie.

If unable to find a Goalie you can contact you League Manager and he/she will do their best to help.

PLAYER OR PLAYERS EJECTED from the GAME:

Player or Players who are ejected from the game must go to their dressing room, no excuse

Any Player or Players who do not follow this rule could lead to a longer suspension.

There will be no appeal for any player who does not obey these rules.

League Manager has the authority to call any game if an ejected players or players will not go to their dressing room and is causing problems

If a game is called the team which the ejected player plays for will forfeit the game and this could lead to a suspension of one game for the whole Team.

SUSPENSIONS:

Any person that is suspended will not be allowed to play or be on any team bench during game(s) for the duration of his suspension.

If a suspended person plays or he is on the bench during a game, the game will be defaulted, and could be subject to possible ejection from the League

This also could lead to suspension of the Whole Team for a number of games or the remainder of the season.

Games suspended will be served consecutively.

1st suspension - 1 to 3 games.

2nd suspension - 3 to 5 games.

3rd suspension – remainder of season.

SUSPENSIONS COMMUNICATION PROCESS:

We will notify the Team Rep of the player who is suspended and the length of suspension.

As the Team Rep you are then responsible to notify your player.

We may ask you to send us a report to verify what you have told us on the phone or in conversation at the rink.

APPEAL PROCESS:

We will talk to any Team Rep or player about their concern of any suspension handed out.

But at all times you must show respect to the League personal, if at any time you lose control during the meeting, it will end and suspension will remain the same or be increased.

You will only be allowed to appeal one suspension during any season and all other suspensions will remain the same.

PERIOD FORMAT:

1st Period:

The clock will be set at 25 minutes and will start to run as soon as the Zamboni door is closed and the Referees are on the ice.

Referees will blow their whistle to start the game.

If a Team is not ready by the 21 minute mark this Team will receive a minor penalty for delay of game.

2nd Period:

The clock will be set at 23:00 minutes and it will start to run at the drop of the puck.

The last 3 minutes of the 2nd period will be stop time if the game is within 2 goals or Tied.

NHL Style shootout will be used if the game is tied after Regular Time.

One time out per Team per game. (30 seconds)

All minor penalties are 3 minutes not 2 minutes.

Penalty times will not start until the puck is dropped

The Only time the clock will stop other than what has been indicated in the period format is if a player is injured or at the request of the Referee.

JERESY CONFLICT:

When sweater colours conflict the visiting team will change jerseys.

SPECIAL RULES:

If a puck makes contact with the Goalie mask the play will be blown down.

If the puck goes into the net off the Goalie mask the goal will count

For the safety of all players, a helmet must be worn at all times both on the ice and on the player's bench. (This also includes the post-game handshake) If at any time a player on the ice surface loses their helmet during game play, the referees will immediately blow the whistle to stop the play.

MINOR & MAJOR PENALTIES:

1. All minor penalties are 3 minutes during run or stop time.

2. High sticking penalties will now be assessed according to CAHA rules.

Note: Above the shoulders is considered high sticking. High sticking penalties will be assessed at the referees' discretion. (Minor or major and time served).

3. Body checking is not allowed and will result in a minor penalty, or a major penalty depending on the referees' call.

4. If anyone receives 3 penalties in any game he/she will be ejected from the game.

5. Fighting major will be dealt with on an individual basis to determine the length of suspensions. All suspensions will accompanied by a regular season and playoff ban versus the team which the fight occurred against.

If a fight occurs, all players not involved must retreat immediately to their bench areas or as directed by the referees. Failure to retreat to your bench area or as directed by the referees will result in penalties at the discretion of the referees.

6. Any player who removes or (drops) their gloves at any point during the game to engage in an altercation or to show intent to fight, will be automatically ejected from the game.

7. Any player who engages or initiates any type of altercation in the penalty box with an opposing player while serving a penalty; he will be immediately ejected from the game. This is something that will not be tolerated, and will result in an indefinite suspension.

8. Any player who engages or initiates any type of altercation during the hand shake or shootout with an opposing player will result in an indefinite suspension.

9. Leaving Team Bench - Only the players on the ice at the time of any altercation are allowed to be on the ice. All other players must remain on the bench. Anyone leaving the bench for any reason will automatically be ejected from the game and suspended for 5 games and will incur other penalties at the discretion of the referees.

10. INTENT TO INJURE - Is a Major penalty. There will be an immediate 3 game suspension and a league rep meeting to deem any further suspension. The Referee will determine if there was intent to injure.

11. All other minor or major penalties according to the C.A.H.A. rules will apply to our League along with the listed above.

12. MISCONDUCT PENALTIES - In the case of a misconduct penalty, another player

Will serve only the minor penalty portion when the person who receives the misconduct is ejected from the game; also, there is no suspension if a game misconduct is assessed for verbal reasons, only ejection from that game.

13. Any fan of the Team playing that causes or instigates a confrontation with the other Team or Referees. The game will end with the whole Team being suspended until further notice. Confrontation could be considered extensive banging on the glass, yelling, and throwing things on the ice going anywhere near the opponents or penalty bench.

14. Any player receiving a Match or Major penalty in the playoff will be suspended for the remainder of the playoffs.

15. No Beer or Tabacco Chew is allowed on the bench, any player with either one will be asked to leave the game.
